The Monrovia Wilderness Preserve Foundation, Inc. was established to serve as a nonprofit public benefit corporation which is exclusively for receiving charitable donations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The foundation can then allocate these funds for preservation activities in the hillsides. The current fund balance is $1,618.

The original terms for the members were staggered with three directors' terms expiring in 2002, three directors' terms expiring in 2003, and three directors' terms expiring in 2004. The current Board of Directors and their respective terms are attached. Gloria Crudgington, Mayor Hammond, and Becky Shevlin need to be reappointed for three year terms.

At the May 11, 2004 Annual Meeting of the Monrovia Wilderness Preserve Foundation, the unanimous recommendation to the City Council was to reappoint Gloria Crudgington, Mayor Hammond and Becky Shevlin for three year terms.
